

Tools and Best Practices for Informed Compliance

THOMSON REUTERS
ONESOURCE

Tools and Best Practices for Informed Compliance

the law firm company
THOMSON REUTERS

Tools and Best Practices for Informed Compliance:

Under the concept of Informed Compliance, trade compliance is considered a shared responsibility between Customs and the trade community. It requires Customs to clearly and effectively communicate its requirements to the trade and, in return, the business community is obligated to conduct its regulated activities in accordance with US laws and regulations.