2021 State of the Corporate Tax Department

Transitioning to a Digital Tax Department

In our latest 2021 State of the Corporate Tax Department report, we take a look at tax teams keeping up with business-as-usual activity against the backdrop of a global pandemic. Tax reform, specific tax workstreams, acquisitions, and macro changes in politics and the economy are critical challenges for companies surveyed in the US and Canada, the UK and Mainland Europe, and a small number from the rest of the world.
